Hunsley Hills Annexed In Final Ordinance Vote

212 Acres Added To City Property

Some 212 acres in Hunsley Hills Addition was annexed Monday night by Canyon City Commissioners.

Annexation ordinance was passed unanimously after it was read for the final time by city manager Dewey Bryant.

Commissioner George Ritter made the motion for passage and Commissioner John Williams seconded the move.

Annexation proceedings of the fashionable subdivision located north of the city have been underway for seven months. Commissioners began work last October to annex the area.

Some 25 residents of the addition met with commissioners at a public hearing in November to protest the annexation movement.

Proceedings for annexation followed a request by Arch Hunsley, developer, to allow the subdivision to form a water district. Commissioners denied the request and annexation proceedings began.

An annexation ordinance was drawn up calling for 320 acres to be added to the city. Hunsley requested that the boundary line be moved southward, eliminating some 148 acres which housed part of a golf course in the development.

Commissioners took no action on the first ordinance and proceedings for a second ordinance began in early February of this year.

Another public hearing was called for the second week in February. Hunsley met with the group at that time to officially protest the annexation.

The second ordinance allows the northern boundary to follow roughly a creek in the subdivision. The other three sides of the annexed area are Farm-to-Market Road 2590 on the west, U.S. Highway 60 on the south, and U.S. Highway 87 on the east.

In return for the boundary change, Hunsley presented the commission a resolution dedicating all right-of-ways and utilities to the public.

Monday night Hunsley presented the commission with a letter offering a piece of his land to be used for a sewerage plant "in return for the City of Canyon running the mains from our present lift station to same at no extra cost to us," the letter read.

The letter continued by explaining that the track of land would be located in the north-

Sign-Up Saturday For Race

Canyon, Happy and Umbarger boys, ages 11-15, can register Saturday morning for the area Soap Box Derby race.

Canyon Junior Chamber of Commerce members will register youngsters who want to enter the race, which will be held in Amarillo in August.

Boys who will be 11-years-old by Aug. 1, 1965, and those who will not be over 15-years-old by Aug. 1, are eligible to enter.

Registration will be held at the Village Drive-In from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m. Saturday.

"Boys must make their racers by themselves, and each boy must have a business sponsor," said Wayne Edmondson, member of the local soap box derby committee.

The car and driver must not weigh more than 250 pounds at the time of the race in August.

Winner of the Amarillo race will receive a $500 bond, and will get an expense-paid trip to Akron, Ohio for the national soap box derby races.

Commission Gives Nurse Program Nod

Texas Commission on Higher Education Monday approved as submitted an application for an undergraduate nursing school program at West Texas State University.

Dr. James P. Cornette, WT president, said plans will now be made for setting up faculty, curriculum and facilities for the nursing school.

A dean for the new school will be selected within the next year.

The bachelor's degree program in nursing will involve the addition of a department of nursing at the university to administer the program in conjunction with hospitals of the region.

The general education and basic science courses already are available at WTSU.

Dr. Cornette said the nursing school program will be started at WTSU as soon after Sept. 1 as possible.

Also Monday, the Commission deferred action on an application for a school of pharmacy at WT. This in effect leaves the decision up to the new coordinating board for state colleges and universities which is to come into existence Sept. 1.

A similar application from Texas Technological College in Lubbock also was deferred.

One of the surest signs of spring is the appearance of kiddoes and new lambs on the scene. Apparently, the season's here to stay now, so Emma Kay Burgdorf, daughter of Mr. and Ed Burgdorf, and "Little Woolie" are out for a stroll in the pleasant weather.

T-Anchor Ranch House May Be Restored Soon

The old T-Anchor headquarters building located on West Texas State University property between the campus and Buffalo Stadium may be repaired.

Mrs. T. B. McCarter of the Randall County Historical Survey Committee told commissioners court Monday that plans are afoot for repair of the historical old headquarters which has fallen into decay.

In making the announcement, Mrs. McCarter asked Commissioner B. R. Jones to construct a county road from the expressway to the old ranch house.

Considerable interest has been shown in the old ranch building in recent weeks.

Mrs. McCarter also gave commissioners a report on her recent trip to Austin to attend a meeting of the state historical survey committee.

Speaking as chairman of the Randall County Library Board, Mrs. McCarter presented an architect's sketch of a proposed new Randall County Library building.

She told commissioners that a Mrs. Rosalyn Shamblin, field consultant for Texas State Library, tentatively is scheduled to be in Canyon May 3 to meet with commissioners court.

She will present a state program for building and remodeling libraries with state funds.

Dewey Bryant, Canyon city manager, met with the court to discuss the possibility of closing off a road leading to the city dump grounds a part of each day.

Bryant said the city keeps a man on duty at the dump ground to prevent the dumping of rubbish there by unauthorized people. Trucks have been bringing in such rubbish after the attendant has left the grounds late in the afternoon.

City officials want to put up a barrier to prevent this. Commissioners pondered the legality of permitting the city to put up such a barrier.

City officials want to take over responsibility for the road and county officials want to give it to them. City Attorney A. W.

Rain Adds Needed Moisture

Humid weather in the Canyon area was broken Wednesday at midday by a brief shower, with some pea-sized hail reported.

More moisture is expected, according to local weathermen.

Dr. Murry Measamer, professor of geography at West Texas State University, reported total moisture received during the Wednesday shower as .42 hundredths inch.

Weather in the area was characterized during the past week by high humidity and cloudiness, Measamer said.

Lowest temperature for the week was 37 degrees Sunday night, with 54 degrees recorded Tuesday night. Temperatures in the area were up to 79 degrees Tuesday.

Lair and Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen now are studying the legal aspects of the proposal.

Commissioners approved a plat proposed by Sunday Canyon Development Company for a development on the rim of Sunday Canyon about 12 miles east of Canyon. The plat was presented by Roy T. Short, representative of the development company.

Commissioner Clarence Beckman proposed that the court go on record as being opposed to proposed legislation which would abolish the office of county school superintendent.

Commissioners authorized the advertising for bids for a motor grader for Precinct 1.

Commissioners accepted an audit of 1964 county business prepared by Doshier, Pickens and Shile, certified public accountants of Amarillo. The firm agreed to do the audit for $2500 but upon completion of the undertaking billed Randall County for only $2000.

Eagle Boosters Meet Tonight

A special meeting of Canyon Eagle Boosters has been called for tonight, Thursday, in the Canyon High School cafeteria at 7:30 o'clock.

T.H. Lair, president of the Booster Club, has requested that persons who have been associated with the club for the past five years meet tonight.

"We want persons to attend who may not be active in the club now, but have been associated with it during the past five years," Lair said.

"Mr. Easter Bunny..." whispers Ceanna Fulton, left, four-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Fulton, Jr., as Abbejane White, age two, listens in. Abbejane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy White. Among Easter activities planned, the kiddoes will no doubt be attending sunrise services Sunday morning at 5:30 in Palo Duro Canyon, and the egg hunt, at 2 p.m. Sunday in Connor Park, sponsored by Canyon Jaycees.

No Danger In Silver Shift Says Economist

BY TROY MARTIN

The US hasn't been on the silver standard for almost 100 years and calling silver coins and silver certificates wouldn't affect the economy in the slightest.

This is what Herschel Coffee, economist and head of the West Texas State University Department of Economics, had to say this week about indications that silver is likely to disappear from our monetary system.

"We haven't actually been on the silver standard since 1873," Coffee declared. He was referring to the coinage act of 1873 when authorization for free coinage of silver was dropped. Until that time a person owning a dollar's worth of silver could have it minted.

A group demanding free coinage of silver became known as the "silver bloc," representing states in which silver mining was a leading industry.

Coffee said mint price of silver now is $1.29 an ounce. "Market value of silver has gone up until it is not profitable for silver producers to sell to the mint," he said. "Silver is getting scarce."

Coffee pointed out that silver presently is being used for silver dollars and subsidiary change such as dimes, quarters and half dollars. The treasury is finding it difficult to get enough silver to keep an adequate coin supply, hence the current coin shortage, he noted.

Coffee said that unless something is done the situation may grow progressively worse.

The economist said the treasury is withdrawing silver dollars and certificates from circulation and replacing them with Federal Reserve notes and to that extent already is quitting the use of silver.

When federal reserve notes finally have taken the place of silver certificates, the claim on silver dollars will be retired and the treasury then may dispose of the silver.

A proposal that has found some favor, he said, is one to reduce silver content in coins.

"Money is valuable because the supply is controlled," he declared.

Coffee said that if this plan is followed, then silver must be called in in much the same manner that gold was called in in 1933. He said that if present coins were left in circulation while some with less silver content were placed in circulation, gross inequities would result.

Coffee noted that there was only $38 billion, $40 million in currency and coin as of Jan. 31, 1965. Of the total, $1.6 billion was in silver dollars and silver certificates and just over $2 billion in other coins.

"Importance of silver is only traditional," Coffee declared. If it goes, the only possible effect it could have on the economy would be whatever psychological effect its departure has upon individuals, he said.

Damage High After Storm

An estimated $4,000 damage was reported Friday following high winds and blowing sand that destroyed a large dairy barn, and blew out a window at Stuckey's north of Canyon.

Charles Gerald of Canyon said a 120-foot barn was blown off the ground at his farm northwest of Canyon and debris from the building was strewn across the countryside for miles.

At Stuckey's, northeast of the farm, a large plate glass window was knocked out and another window cracked due to the high winds.

"I think it was a small twister instead of just straight winds," said Gerald in describing the events surrounding the loss of the barn.

"We were inside a concrete building, and when the wind was blowing so hard it looked like that building was going to go too," he recalled. "In fact I believe it would have if it had not been stationed down."

Herman Bullard, manager of the Stuckey's store, said some 10 persons were in his building when the wind hit.

"We thought the awning was going to go, but that glass broke instead," Bullard explained. "And our gasoline sign in front of the store was torn away."

Several signs along the Amarillo E-Way were turned over and those remaining up during the high winds were splattered with mud.

Rain was mixed with the sand which struck Canyon around 2 p.m. Friday.

Gerald estimated damage at his farm around $3,000. Bullard said damage to the Stuckey's store would range around $700-$800.

The wind also carried a coral fence away from the Gerald farm, according to the owner.

"In fact the barn and fence went so high that they caught on highline wires and fell across the road," Gerald noted. "We had to get out with tractors and move the debris from the highway."

Easter Egg Hunt Sunday

Easter egg hunts for local youngsters are being sponsored by the Junior Chambers of Commerce of Canyon and Happy Sunday afternoon.

Approximately 2,500 candy eggs will be hidden throughout Connor Park for the egg hunt, according to a spokesman for the Canyon Jaycees. The hunt will get underway at 2 p.m. with all youngsters invited to participate. Children between the ages of 1-6 and 7-12 will hunt eggs in different sections of the park. Prizes will be awarded in each division for finding the prize eggs.

The Happy Jaycees' egg hunt will begin at 2 p.m. Sunday afternoon in the Happy park with youngsters eligible in two age groups. Prizes will be awarded to those finding the most eggs.

Holiday Due

Area school children will have a three-day vacation beginning Friday.

Schools in Canyon and Happy will be closed Friday, Monday and Tuesday, April 16-20, for Easter holidays.

Classes will be let out at the regular time Thursday, April 15, and will resume at the regular time Wednesday morning April 21.

Umbarger school will be closed Friday and Monday only.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

We toured Carlsbad Caverns along with the family over the week end.

Our youngest was a mite dismayed when he found out we would be going into a mere hole in the ground. He had been telling his young friends with gleeful anticipation that he was about to take a trip to "Carl's Vad Cabins" and must have thought we were going to camp out a bit.

But he, along with the rest of the family, was more than impressed at the handiwork of nature, wrought over the eons in the bowels of a mountain. Most of you have already taken the tour so we will not bore you with a description of the stalactites and the stalagmites which hang like icicles from the ceiling or climb like pillars from the floors of the cave.

We urge those who have not already done so to take the tour as soon as possible.

We applaud the governor for his veto of the Tech medical school bill.

A governor's veto cannot reasonably be construed as interference with legislative process since the power of a chief executive to veto is a part of our legislative process.

Governor Connally wants the decision on whether to establish a medical school in this area left up to a newly created coordinating board for state colleges and universities.

We did not agree that a super board should be established. We think the board will tend to centralize power in the state capitol.

However, since such a board was voted into existence by the legislature, it should be allowed to pass on matters falling within its jurisdiction. We agree with the governor that the Tech medical school proposal is one of those matters.

America's number one citizen in our books still is J. Edgar Hoover. Hoover has fought all attempts to make the FBI a national police force. "Citizens should not be misled by the self-styled 'medicine men' in our midst who with their patented tonics for all social ills profess to hold the magic key to Utopia," Hoover wrote recently. "Under close examination, their credentials often prove to be as false as their charges that the FBI is 'dragging its feet' and is not determined to enforce the civil rights laws. The ludicrousness of these charges is exceeded only by their inaccuracy. What these drummers of discord are actually advocating is that the FBI dispense with the democratic principles of law enforcement and apply police state methods."

A little girl was enticed from her play in South Amarillo last week and molested.

We hope this serves as a warning to Canyon parents. Spring is here, the weather is nice and kids will be outside a lot. We hope parents will warn their children properly to beware of strangers.

The Canyon police department and sheriff's officers are doing their best to keep itinerants out of residential areas. However, there are dozens of legitimate reasons for strangers to be in these areas.

We hope Canyon parents will be on their guard. We do not want a tragedy here.

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

Remember when you would wake up early, all excited for the Big Hunt.

You scampered into some clothes or grabbed up a house-robe and headed for the front door.

Your parents slowly followed you to the porch as you and your brothers and sisters hunted frantically for the multi-colored eggs.

Your colorful basket had some candy eggs in the bottom, but they didn't hold the excitement that those large, bright real eggs seemed to have.

Under the bush, in the tree, under the house, near the porch, over in the tall grass, between the hedge. All over the yard you ran, shrieking with joy over each egg found.

Your parents would offer suggestions as to which direction you should look. Then they would smile a knowing smile and watch.

You wondered how on earth the Easter Bunny ever reached some of the hiding places, but you knew he did 'cause you kept finding eggs in those spots.

Finally the folks would ask for a tally, and everyone would stop and count.

Yes, that was all that had been dyed the night before.

You remember exactly because everyone had been in the kitchen, helping Mother as she boiled the painful of eggs, then dipped them in the dye and finally set them out to dry.

Some of them had been left for handmade decorations.

And finally when all the eggs were colored or decorated, everyone began to count to make sure Mr. Rabbit would have plenty to hide, and yet not too many to take him all night.

It had been so grand, the smell of eggs in the dye, and the excitement of what Easter Sunday would bring.

But the egg hunt was over very soon. All the eggs had been found, and your parents had rounded you up and urged you to hurry to get dressed for church.

But you couldn't hurry to dress. You were too busy hiding the eggs all over the house.

and another hunt was underway.

Between church and dinner another hunt was begun, and finally after the dishes had been put away, still another Easter Egg Hunt was in progress.

By the end of the day, egg shells were strewn from the bedroom to the kitchen floor and from the front yard to the trash barrel in the back.

But to you the gay colors of the eggs still looked beautiful, even though you had been hit several times in the head with flying eggs due to a friendly brother-sister battle.

However, by the morning following Easter those candy eggs seemed to hold more charm for you than those "old broken eggs."

And poor Mother dragged out the sweeper, mop, broom, and dust rag to clean up what was left of the cracked shells and strands of green grass that had been trampled in during the many egg hunt ventures.

Six Coeds 'Missed'

Six West Texas State University sorority officers were kidnapped from their dormitory last Friday evening as law officers watched.

The kidnapped girls, all officers of the four social sororities on the WT campus, were a part of Phi Delta Theta fraternity's "weekend ransom."

The girls Deanna Friend, Alpha Delta Pi president, Terry Nelson, Zeta Tau Alpha president, and Verna Jo Benson, vice-president, Linda Jo Allison, Delta Zeta prexy and Beverly Peck, vice-president, and Sharon Whitfield, Chi Omega prexy, were ransom back to their sorority chapters during a gathering Saturday afternoon.

The "kidnapping" was under the supervision of college authorities, including the dean of men and dean of women.

Ransom for the girls included canned food for the Amarillo Children's Home. More than $100 worth of food was received, fraternity members reported.

The coeds were treated royally by fraternity members, served steak dinners Friday evening, housed in the Holiday Inn overnight, and had breakfast in bed Saturday morning.

In charge of the "kidnap and ransom" case were Tom Ford, fraternity president, and Charles Harr, social chairman.

Archery Club Shoots Golf

Games of golf archery and deer rounds were included in activities April 4 sponsored by members of Canyon Archery Club.

Low score in the golf shoot was tallied by Lonnie Peters. Archery golf and regulation golf are played similarly according to a club spokesman.

Jack Collier won the deer round, and Sarah Price was awarded a ham for outstanding shooting in the novelty shoot.

The afternoon show was followed by a pot luck supper at the Fisheries Laboratory with Phil Barlow, president, conducting the business meeting afterwards.

The club will have a 'work day' Saturday beginning at 8:00 a.m. with members assisting to prepare the range for their weekly shoot Sunday afternoon. The regular field round scheduled for Sunday will get underway at 1:30 p.m.

All persons interested in the club are invited to watch or participate according to Jack Collier, spokesman. The archery range is located in the Hunsley addition area approximately one-half mile east of the VFW Road.

WT Classes Out 3 Days

In observance of Easter, West Texas State University classes will be dismissed for three days, according to Dean Walter H. Juniper.

Students will begin a spring recess Friday, and classes will resume Tuesday at 8 a.m. The brief holiday is the final break in classes before the spring semester ends May 27, last day of final examinations.

All persons are invited to attend the reception, to be held from 2-5 p.m., in conjunction with a current show of Mrs. Loeffler's at the museum.

The exhibit will be up for several weeks.

Construction To Begin On Center, WT Building

Construction on the $500,000 first unit of the Killgore Research Center and a $200,000 applied science building at West Texas State University is expected to start immediately after approval of contracts by the Board of Regents of Texas State Teachers Colleges.

President James P. Cornette said final plans for the two buildings have been approved by the board, which authorized advertising for bids. He said a proposed contract to the lowest and best bidder will be submitted to the board at its May meeting, and construction would begin after board approval.

Plans were drawn by Hucker and Parge of Amarillo. The initial unit of the Killgore Research Center, of brick and concrete construction, will be just north of the Administration Building. The old agriculture building will be cleared from the site.

Housing the agriculture and industrial education departments, the new applied science building will also be of brick and concrete construction. Plans are to build it north of Conner Hall on the north side of Spur 48.

Main entrance of the Killgore Center will face south, and the completely air-conditioned building will contain two sections. One will have 16 individual laboratories and 16 offices for researchers, an environmental-controlled room, a machine shop for construction of equipment, and a photo laboratory.

In the second section will be a low temperature research laboratory, five administrative offices, reception center, conference room, library, and the center's computer section. The computer area will contain three programmer offices, the machines room, key punch room, unit records room, and storage.

Plans for future additions will bring the final dimensions of the building to 220 by 160 feet, with two stories. A total of 48 additional individual laboratories and a like number of researcher offices is planned for future expansion. Also allowing for future expansion, the applied science building will originally be 225 by 140 feet and of one-story construction. The area for industrial education will contain lecture space and offices and laboratories for metals, power mechanics, woodworking, electronics, industrial crafts, and drafting.

The agriculture department will have lecture space and laboratories for agronomy, soils, horticulture, animal husbandry, and range management.

Foreign Trade Discussion Planned At WT Seminar

Expansion of foreign trade by area business and industry will be explored at a one-day International Trade Seminar April 28 at West Texas State University.

Expected for the conference are businessmen of the Tri-State region who might be interested in information for possible increased foreign outlets for trade, according to Dr. T.J. Leonard, associate professor of government and chairman of the planning committee.

Sponsors of the seminar with WTSU are the United States Department of Commerce and the Amarillo and Canyon Chambers of Commerce. Dr. Leonard said the seminar is open to interested persons, and that no fees will be charged.

Assisting are the Grain Sorghum Producers Association, the Export Expansion Council, and the Regional Export Expansion Council.

Keynote speaker will be George A. Smith, Jr., president of the Central Station Alarm Company of Dallas. He will be introduced by Cliff Mlinar, past president of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. H.R. Fulton, Jr., president of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, will outline the purpose of the seminar.

One spray of Propazine® 80W herbicide controls most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

This can reduce or even eliminate the need for cultivating because Propazine takes care of problem weeds for you. Propazine is particularly effective on carelessweed (pigweed) and annual morning glory.

Sprayed before weeds and sorghum are up and activated by moisture, Propazine gives your crop an entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients. The result? Higher yields and more profit for you.

east corner of land now owned by Hunsley and bounded on the north by the West Texas State University farm and on the east by the Santa Fe Railroad.

Commissioners took no action on the letter.

In other action Monday, John A. Williams and Dr. J. Manly Bryan were sworn in as commissioners. Paul Lindsey, retiring commissioner, thanked the city dads for making his 10 years on the commission "a pleasure".

Mayor Clarence Eugene Thompson said, "We want to tell you what a genuine pleasure it has been working with you Paul, and we appreciate your years of service."

Commissioners also thanked city manager Bryant for his work in the past year.

Ballots from the April 6 city election were canvassed. Williams and Bryan received 82 votes each. One vote was given to J.D. Byrd as a write-in.

Commissioners passed an ordinance on the first reading changing the meeting dates to the first and third Mondays of each month.

A third ordinance was also passed on the first reading. Lots 18, 19 and 20 in Block 30 in the original town of Canyon were changed from "dwelling" to "retail" classification. The lots are located in the 1500 block of Fourth Avenue.

An ordinance was passed calling a public hearing for April 26 to consider annexation of some 40 acres south of Pioneer Estates. The area will run east from Tenth Avenue and south from Thompson Lane in Pioneer Estates.

Plats of new units in Hidden Valley and Ponderosa Additions were approved by the commission. Dads also gave approval to preliminary plans in Pioneer Estates Addition.

Commissioners voted to begin proceedings to change the name of Tenth Avenue to Hillcrest Drive from 18th Street to 19th Street.

An additional street is planned in Hidden Valley Addition just south of Hillcrest. Developers have named the proposed street Creekmore Drive. Commissioners voted to change Eleventh Avenue to Creekmore Drive from 11th Street to 19th Street.

"If both streets have names differing from avenues from 11th Street to 19th Street, at least it will have some uniformity," said Thompson.

Commissioners authorized Bryant to advertise for bids for a tone alerting system for the Canyon Volunteer Fire Department, for a tractor for the water and sewer departments, and for five city vehicles.

The vehicles include two for the street and sanitation department, one for the water department, one for the administrative department and one for the police department.

Bryant was also authorized to advertise for bids for the city paving and seal coating program, which will begin this summer, and various water facilities, including an eight inch main looping water system, and testing of section of water rights under option contract.

Advertisement of bids for improvement of city hall was also authorized.

"We plan to put in a false ceiling, heating and air conditioning, repaint the inside, put down a new floor covering and enlarge my office," Bryant explained to commissioners. "We have allowed $3,000 in the budget for the renovation, and we will do as much as the money allows."

Commissioners also authorized the following payments: final payment to McDonald Drilling Company for water wells in the amount of $15,603.45 ($9,173.52 has all ready been paid by the city); Pak-Mor Manufacturing Company for packer body of a sanitation truck at $3,650, and Jess Stout Ford Company for cab and chassis for the truck at $3,676.63; Burroughs Corporation for a billing machine at $4,519.40; and first of three installment payments to Municipal Code Corporation for ordinance codification at $1,500.

Canyon Study Club Has Program On Art

Mrs. Olive Bugbee presented a program on painting at the Tuesday evening meeting of Canyon Study Club, held in the home of Mrs. Johnnie Raymond.

Mrs. Bugbee, curator of art for Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, spoke to the club on different areas of painting, telling members how to choose paintings for rooms.

"Remember that tastes change," she said, adding, "what you may like this year may not be what you like next year. Don't spend so much on a picture that you wouldn't want to change it."

Fine arts report for the club was given by Mrs. Dewey Bryant. She discussed ethics and manners of club work.

Presenting a program on period furniture, including Spanish, Italian, and French trends in modern furniture, was Mrs. Jim Russell.

Names for membership were proposed, and they will be invited to the next meeting, a salad supper. Mrs. Jim Russell will hostess the meeting May 4 at 7:30 p.m. New officers will also be installed at that time.

Present for the meeting were Mesdames Mark Clapp, Bobby Byrd, Don Sheffy, Don Ray, Walter Cranmer, Floyd Langford, Stan Elliott, Jim Russell,

Craig Bellah Not Injured In Accident

Craig Bellah escaped serious injury Monday night when his car went out of control and went over an embankment at Canyon City Club.

Investigating highway patrolmen quoted Bellah as saying his brakes failed. He was alone in the car, officers said.

Patrolman Kenneth Meadows said Bellah jumped from the car before it went over the embankment. The vehicle lodged against a rock or it might have fallen some 75 feet, Meadows reported.

"I Do Everything Wrong Outside"

Trembles When Free

Thomas David Jackson drew a $125 fine from a Randall County Court jury Monday after he entered a plea of guilty to charges of driving without an operator's license.

As a man who has spent 23 of his 57 years as an inmate of state prisons, Jackson was more interested in the jury reaching a speedy verdict than he was in the verdict itself.

He explained to Judge Lloyd King that he has been made a trustee at Randall County jail and needed to get back to his work.

"The prisoners have to be fed and then I've got the halls to get cleaned up," he told Judge King.

By his own account, Jackson has spent 23 of his 57 years as a prisoner in the penitentiary. He said he took his first rap for swindling.

"I was selling worthless oil stock," he reported, "about $3,800 worth."

He said his last trip to the pen was the outcome of a fracas in which he hit an adversary over the head with a rolling pin.

"It was just a little old rollin' pin," he declared. "I didn't go to hurt him at all." Jackson said he drew five years after being convicted of assault with intent to murder.

Jackson recounted some of his experiences as an inmate of the state penal system.

He was in construction work as a prisoner and spoke proudly of accomplishments of his group. "We built millions of dollars worth of buildings," he declared. "And they're still going. I'd thought it would be over in 1954 but they're still going."

Jackson also spoke with pride of the penal farms. "They've got a lot of fine cattle," he related.

Jackson said he never had any trouble as a prisoner. "Some of the younger kids have trouble when they first come in," he went on. He said there now is a system of segregation in which younger prisoners and first offenders are separated from prisoners with long records.

"I'd hate to be a warden over them brats," he declared. "They'd drive anyone to drink."

Jackson said conditions in the state's penal system have improved a great deal since Dr. Beto became warden.

"Sometimes they even ASK you to do things," he narrated. "They used to say 'Old thing, see that cotton on that stalk. That cotton's yours and that stalk is mine, so you'd better get started separating your cotton from my stalk.'"

Jackson said he dreamed of the day he'd get out of prison. "I promised myself I'd get me a beef steak, so big," he said indicating a huge steak with a wave of his hands. "I'd been used to eating baloney and crackers in the pen. So what did I do when I got out? I rented me a room in Fort Worth. I had money. There was a nice restaurant right across the street but I got to the door and was afraid to go in. I bought me some baloney and crackers and two apples. I went up to my hotel room to eat them.

"Some people are so scared they tremble when they first get to the pen. Well, I was just that scared when I got out.

"I got in my hotel room and the door wasn't locked. I lay awake all night. I just couldn't go to sleep out in the free world.

"I get along fine in the pen. I had a job to do and I did it and they depended on me. I'm a construction worker and a furniture finisher. There's lot's of things I can't do but there's one thing I CAN do and that's finish furniture.

"I do everything right in the pen and I don't do anything right out in the free world. I don't understand it. I just can't do anything right in the free world."

Jackson was released from the penitentiary March 11, according to his accounting. Randall County Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen said he was arrested exactly a week later.

Two Fire Calls Made

Canyon Fire Department answered two grass fire calls this week.

Thursday, April 8, a minor grass fire was extinguished 15 miles north of Canyon on the Santa Fe right-of-way. Call was received at the station at 11:30 a.m.

Firemen were called out again Sunday to a minor grass fire at 2:45 p.m. The fire was located approximately one mile east of Canyon on Palo Duro creek.

KA's Hold Egg Hunt

Kappa Alpha Order members of West Texas State hosted children from the Amarillo Children's Home at an egg hunt, held Wednesday afternoon.

The hunt was held on the Charles R. Nester property, east of town.

Eggs for the youngsters' hunt were donated by Bellah's, Coopers', Taylor and Sons, and Graham groceries.

Participating in the hunt were around 30 children, as well as more than 50 fraternity representatives.

MAID SERVICE is available from members of Delta Zeta social sorority at West Texas State University. The girls are available to clean house, iron, babysit, clean yards, or any other odd job you might request. Fee for the service is $1 an hour. Polly McLain, left, Sue Weins, and Sharon Corica are shown as they get into practice for the weeks of cleaning ahead. To obtain a girl or girls call OL 5-4304.

Varsity Stomps Buff Alums, 52-13

The West Texas State Varsity won an easy 52-13 decision over its Alumni Friday night in Buffalo Bowl. The win gave the Varsity a 3-1 lead in the series and averaged last year's 34-0 whitewashing by the Alums.

Where the Old Grads played flawless football last year, they made mistakes in this one mostly forced by the sturdy Buffalo defense which scored three TD's. Hoot Gibson, who quarterbacked the Alums most of the night, twice tried to pass from his end zone in the first period only to have young Steve Haterius, freshman safety from Stamford, intercept and run eight and two yards, respectively, for touchdowns. These, coupled with the Varsity's 67-yard march in the first three minutes and three conversion kicks by Roy "Rusty" Armstrout, gave the incumbents a 21-0 lead at the end of the first period.

In all, the Exes lost four fumbles and had five passes intercepted, three of which went for touchdowns. In the 1964 game, the Varsity surrendered the ball the same number of times in defeat. The Alums seldom moved the ball consistently except in the second half under 1950 QB Gene Mayfield. Pete Pedro netted only 18 yards rushing and saw little daylight.

Highlight of the game for the Alums, who scored both their TD's in the fourth period, was an 85-yard run by Charles "Wire" Wright. The entire 1950 team entered the game two minutes into the fourth period and promptly sent Wright up the middle for the touchdown. Roy Lee Dun converted, making the score 44-7.

Soon after, Dennis Flanagan intercepted an errant lateral by Dave Fleming and scampered 54 yards for the second Alumni touchdown.

The Varsity's opening march seemingly spelled doom for the Alums. Quarterback Spencer Washington guided them 63 yards in but six plays and Fleming sent Dennis into the end zone on the seventh play of the drive. James Cowell's 27-yard sprint started the drive and Dennis' run with a screen pass gained 19 to the four.

Dennis scored the fourth varsity TD with a remarkable bit of deception in the second period. Seemingly hemmed in on the sidelines, he brilliantly reversed his field and went untouched from the 18. Cowell's great block must also be mentioned.

In addition to Dennis and Haterius, who each scored twice, halfback Ronnie Mankin also had a fine scoring day. The converted quarterback tallied on a sweep of two yards, kicked a 33-yard field goal, kicked an extra point and passed to Cowell for a two-point conversion.

FFA LAND judging team from Canyon High School won first place at the district contest Saturday held at West Texas State University. The team consists of Phil Masterson, Royce Loveless, Andy Dorsey and Clyde Flowers.

WT Coed Places In Finals

Rheba Parish, West Texas State University sophomore, represented WT and Region 12 at the International Bowling Tournament held in Portland, Oregon this week.

Miss Parish and four other girls from Texas and Louisiana were teammates for Region 12. They competed against 76 other girls in team, single and double events.

The WT coed won fourth place in singles, and she and a partner placed 15th in the doubles events.

In all-events Rheba placed 15th.

The tournament is sponsored by the Association of College Unions and is financed by Brunswick, according to Miss Parish.

Miss Parish left Amarillo Saturday on the all-expense paid

Jackson was placed in Randall County jail following his arrest. "I felt good when I heard that key turn in that jail door," Jackson declared.

field, Chi Omega, Deanna Friend, Alpha Delta Pi, and Linda Allison, Delta Zeta, are shown with their ransom, cans of food for Amarillo Children's Home. Sponsoring the kidnapping was Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Mrs. Carl Eugene Hair Homemaker Of Week

BY PHYLLIS BONNIE

"What I really hope for is a place where the children feel they can come and bring their friends," says Mrs. Carl Eugene Hair, our homemaker of the week.

"Since I am primarily a homemaker," she continues, "I want to do all I can for the children. That includes being here when they need me. Anything I can do for people, from sitting up with a sick friend to any other way I can help is what I enjoy."

The Hairs, Carl Eugene and Ann, are both only children.

Ann, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Amason, and Carl Eugene, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Hair, all of Canyon, have four children.

Sandy, age 13, received his life rank Monday evening as a member of Boy Scout Troop 66. Gary, who will be 10 tomorrow, is a member of den 1, Cub Pack 31. The two younger children, are Cindy, 4 and Tim, 2.

Sandy, also a member of the Cardinals in the Babe Ruth League, has an avid interest in music and takes guitar lessons from Clyde McDonald.

"Last week," smiled Ann, "he bought an electric guitar and brought it home. Then the fun began. One of the kiddoes from next door also has a guitar and he came over, too."

"Very soon, we had our own hootenanny," she laughed.

"Gary, who is also interested in guitars, likes to build models of ships and most everything he can do with his hands. He's been active in Little League ball for two years."

Both Carl and Ann are also active in Little League. Carl was a coach for 10 years, and Ann has helped in the concession stand and "in the cheering section," she smiles.

"With the two older boys being in scouting, we feel that they have received chances to do things which they ordinarily wouldn't get to do, as well as learning things that they probably wouldn't have. We're both really sold on our scout program," she smiles, adding, "I hope to have a Cross and an Eagle on my tombstone." (Rank of Life Scout in scouting is last in line before the Eagle rank).

Ann moved to Canyon from Silverton with her parents 20 years ago, while Carl Eugene, born in Amarillo, is a native of Canyon. He is employed with the Post Office.

Both the Hairs are graduates of the old WT High, which, as Ann laughingly states, "They closed the year we graduated."

They have lived in the same home for 13 years, following their marriage in 1950, and are now tentatively planning to add additional rooms.

"We want the children to have more room; then too, as they become older, they will need it," Ann notes.

The Hairs participate in activities of First Baptist Church. What about Ann's hobbies? "I'm just an informal person, with informal ideas," she says, "and I try to do things that I can stay home and accomplish. This includes anything from making people feel welcome and wanted, to painting and carpentering. I'd also like to try some flower arranging."

"Then also, I've participated in community drives; mental health, Red Cross, Heart Fund, and the Mother's March. We always help in the annual Boy Scout Fund drive," she adds.

making the recipe in an angel food pan, and using the icing recipe doubled. The cake is really better a day after it is baked," she notes.

Separate two eggs and add yolks to shortening and sugar. Mix together and alternately add 1 cup buttermilk and two cups

Cook icing, reserving one-half cup of the milk until the mixture boils, until mixture reaches soft ball stage. Then beat until reaches spreading consistency. Pecans may be added.

Mrs. Carl Eugene Hair is shown with her two older sons, Sandy, left, age 13, and Gary, who'll be 10 tomorrow. Sandy received life rank in Court of Honor ceremonies held Monday evening under the sponsorship of Boy Scout Troop 66.

Guests of honor at a dinner of Zeta Delta chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma society held last Saturday evening were Col. and Mrs. Raymond Lumry and Sharon. Mrs. Alta Smith, far right, is president of the chapter. Theme for the evening's dinner was "Japan."

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO Women

Delta Kappa Gamma Has Japan Program

"Japan-A Nation of Tradition and Westernization" was the program presented to Zeta Delta chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, at a supper held last Saturday.

Mrs. W.F. Haggard, program leader, and guests of the chapter, Col. and Mrs. Ray Lumry and Sharon, led the program. Following a buffet supper in the Gold Room on the West Texas State University campus, Col. and Mrs. Lumry demonstrated by lecture and slides changes witnessed during a two and one-half year stay in Japan with the US Army.

They presented the political, economic, social and educational aspects of modern Japan, and pointed out customs of dress and family life which are traditional.

Sharon, a fifth grader at Rex Reeves Elementary School, wore authentic Japanese costume.

Boat Ramp Built At Buffalo

Construction of a three-boat ramp at Buffalo Lake is near completion, according to Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge manager Bob Brown.

The ramp, being built on the southeast side of the lake, will be 40 feet wide and more than 100 feet in length.

Some 30 cars and trailers will be able to park in the paved parking area adjacent to the ramp, according to Brown.

"The ramp will accommodate three cars and boats at one time," Brown assured. "That is if the drivers are fairly good backers."

A spur road is also under construction leading from Farm Road 1714 to the paved area near the ramp.

The spur will cross Junction 168, which runs beside the lake.

"We are also adding more picnic tables and fireplaces," Brown noted.

Some five new picnic units have been added, and five more are expected to be placed near the lake by late June.

"The five we just added brings the total of tables to 26. Only six of the table sites have fire places too," the manager explained.

An over-all plan of development for the lake calls for some 225 picnic units to be placed around the lake, Brown said.

"If we can add a few things we will have better facilities each year," he commented.

with an ELECTRIC Clothes Dryer

It's always fair weather when you and your electric dryer get together. Gentle electricity, accurately controlled, dries clothes exactly the way you want them dried - for ironing or fold-away. Too, the cost is so low - the total cost - just 5¢ a load and if you dried a load every day that's only $1.50 a month. And remember, this includes power for the tumbler and blower as well as gentle electric heat for drying.

Stickers Available At Lake

Special recreation-conservation stickers are on sale for $7 at Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge, according to lake manager Bob Brown.

"These stickers will admit occupants of a noncommercial automobile into national parks, wildlife refuges, national forests, and other Federal recreation areas that charge an admission fee," Brown explained.

Stickers, which were authorized by the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act, are valid from April 1, 1965 to March 31, 1966.

"This new legislation is one of the greatest that has been passed dealing with recreation and conservation," Brown emphasized.

"Revenues from the sale of stickers will help in the planning and development of national parks, refuges and forests," he noted.

"We are trying to keep our natural resources open for everyone to enjoy."

"We want people to be able to go out and find a beautiful spot where they can swim, fish, camp out or just relax," Brown continued.

Funds from the sale of stickers will go with other recreation fees, revenues from sale of surplus Federal real property and the Federal motorboat fuels tax, into the Land and Water Conservation Fund, according to Brown.

TEC Branch Office Due In Canyon

A branch of the Texas Employment Commission will be opened in Canyon Thursday, April 15.

According to J.D. Roberson, office manager of TEC in Amarillo, the branch office will be open every other Thursday morning from 8:15 to 9:15 o'clock.

"We are offering the bi-weekly itinerant service so Canyon residents wishing to enter claims for unemployment insurance and turn in applications for jobs may do so without driving to Amarillo every week," Roberson explained.

Roberson also pointed out that persons living in Canyon will not have to appear at the office every week to file claims for the unemployment insurance, but can sign the claims every two weeks.

John Zimmer of Amarillo will be the TEC representative handling the Canyon office which will be located in the jury room on the third floor of the Randall County Courthouse.
